

Murang'a university of technology

The logo of the Murang'a University of Technology Medical Laboratory Students Association (MUTMLSA) is a circular emblem. It features a green outer ring with the text 'M.U.T.M.L.S.A' at the top and 'MURANG'A UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY' at the bottom. Inside the ring is a light green circle containing a stylized microscope and a DNA double helix. The text 'MUTMLSA' is written in the center of the inner circle.

MURANG'A UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY MEDICAL LABORATORY STUDENTS ASSOCIATION (MUTMLSA)

Official Financial Audit Report

Audit Period:

Academic Year
2025/2026 to Beginning of Semester 1
2026/2027

Prepared By:

MUTMLSA Executive Committee

Currency:

Kenyan Shillings (Ksh)

Status:

Fully Verified / Open Ledger Transparency

1. SEMESTER ONE (2025/2026) LEDGER FINANCIAL NARRATIVE

The semester began with an active cash balance of Ksh 3,275 in the association treasury account. The activities and exact transactions progressed openly as follows:

TRANSACTION DESCRIPTION & FINANCIAL BREAKDOWN	INFLOW (KSH)	RUNNING BALANCE (KSH)
Opening Balance Carried forward into the 2025/2026 academic year.	-	3,275
Wristbands & Initial Labcoats Batch: Wristbands were ordered. Due to minor cash shortfalls, the Executive team chipped in personal funds out-of-pocket to fully clear the supplier order. 8 labcoats and 2 wristbands were sold. A historical supplier debt of Ksh 4,400 for labcoat acquisition was completely settled.	-	4,400
Main First-Year Labcoat Bulk Drive: Purchased more labcoats from wholesalers costing Ksh 21,000 plus Ksh 800 for transport (Total layout Ksh 21,800). Sold 29 labcoats to incoming first-year students for a total collection of Ksh 29,000, bringing a clean net profit of Ksh 7,200 back into the account.	+7,200	11,600
Labcoat Rebranding Cycle: Rebranded another segment of labcoats, bringing in a direct profit of Ksh 3,300. This entire profit was immediately utilized to completely clear another outstanding product vendor debt. Net balance remained unchanged.	0	11,600
Association Promotional T-Shirts: Acquired a batch of 20 shirts from the vendor, which initially lowered the association treasury account down to a base of Ksh 1,560.	-	1,560
T-Shirt Distribution Revenue: Initial sales collections generated Ksh 2,200. Note: Not everyone who took a t-shirt cleared their payments at the time, leaving a temporary outstanding balance due to the association.	+2,200	3,760
Membership Registrations & Renewals: General collections from new student registrations, semester renewals, and extra wristband sales added Ksh 700 to the kitty.	+700	4,460
Semester Closing Social Party: After meeting all event organization, catering, and operational expenses, the association account balance was left at Ksh 3,010.	-1,450	3,010
KEMELSA Institutional Affiliation: Paid official registration fees to the Kenya Medical Laboratory Students Association (KEMELSA), leaving the closing balance.	-500	2,510
SEMESTER ONE FINAL VERIFIED CASH BALANCE	-	2,510

Semester 1 Closing Physical Stock Assets: 1 Labcoat, 38 Wristbands, 10 T-Shirts.

2. SEMESTER TWO (2025/2026) LEDGER FINANCIAL NARRATIVE

Semester Two commenced openly with the carried forward balance of Ksh 2,510. This semester focused heavily on academic events, professional exchanges, and institutional handovers:

TRANSACTION DESCRIPTION & FINANCIAL BREAKDOWN	INFLOW/ OUTFLOW	RUNNING BALANCE (KSH)
Opening Balance Carried forward from Semester One.	-	2,510
Mid-Year Registrations & Renewals: Student membership activation drives brought in an additional Ksh 700.	+700	3,210
Ongoing T-Shirt Stock Liquidation: Remaining stock items were sold out to members, raising cash by Ksh 1,500.	+1,500	4,710
MUTMLSA Scientific Symposium & Talk: Total expenditure required for the event was Ksh 5,640. Direct student contributions collected amounted to Ksh 2,250. The resulting severe deficit was heavily padded out-of-pocket by the Executive members' personal funds, with exactly Ksh 2,500 drawn from the core association account (factoring in a minor Ksh 90 administrative tracking shift).	-2,590	2,120
Late-Semester Registration Catch-up: Additional delayed student registration and renewal fee handovers added Ksh 1,180.	+1,180	3,300
Executive Handover Ceremony: Funded logistics, refreshments, and the symbolic ceremony cake, dropping the account.	-1,770	1,530
MUTMLSA Research Conference (March 31, 2026): The absolute expenditure for the hallmark conference stood at Ksh 11,200. Combined general member contributions and pooled association resources hit Ksh 12,900, resulting in a healthy surplus retained in the account.	+170	1,700
4th Year Student Graduation Certificates: Certificate printing costs were Ksh 1,400. Final-year students contributed specialized renewal fees pushing the account briefly to Ksh 2,550 before settling the print shop invoice.	-550	1,150
SEMESTER TWO FINAL VERIFIED CASH BALANCE	-	1,150

Semester 2 Closing Physical Stock Assets: 38 Wristbands, 9 T-Shirts. (Note: 1 remaining association labcoat was officially pushed out on student loan).

3. CURRENT SEMESTER OPENING STATUS (2026/2027)

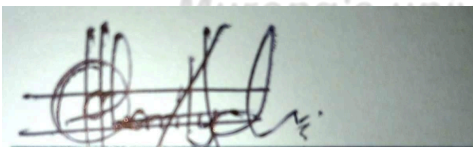

Accounting for the launch phase of the ongoing semester up to the current active date:

CURRENT CYCLE ACTIVITIES	AMOUNT (KSH)	RUNNING BALANCE (KSH)
Carried Forward Base Balance From Semester 2 closing.	-	1,150
Administrative Print Run: Acquired official association printout cards for Ksh 300 (factoring a small Ksh 20 adjustment).	-320	830
New First-Year Intake Registration: Induction of 1 new first-year student added full registration fees.	+100	930
New 11-Unit Labcoat Fresh Order: Total collections from students reached Ksh 11,000. Full logistics layout (tailoring procurement, wholesale assembly, transportation, and branding) came to exactly Ksh 10,250. This yielded an immediate, clear profit of Ksh 750 directly into the general treasury box.	+750	1,680
CURRENT ACTUAL CASH IN ASSOCIATION ACCOUNT	-	1,680

4. INDEPENDENT INTERNAL REVIEW COMMITTEE SIGN-OFF

We, the chosen objective internal auditors, have manually checked the receipts for labcoat materials, t-shirt batches, event cake, and individual student registration entries. We confirm that this transparent breakdown perfectly and honestly mirrors the real story of MUTMLSA's cash and assets over the last year.

Cherrily Ochieng',
Chairperson

James Gitahi,
Treasurer

